

Standards of Proficiency Review PLG

Standards of Proficiency; the legal context

Executive Summary and Recommendations

Introduction

The Health Professions Order 2001 gives the HPC the power to set standards of proficiency for the professions it regulates. The following paper is written by Jonathan Bracken, the legal advisor to Council, and lays out the legal context for the standards.

Paper to follow.

Decision

No decision required; this paper is for information only.

Background information

None.

Resource implications

None.

Financial implications

None

Background papers

None.

Appendices

None.

ERROR: undefinedfilename
OFFENDING COMMAND: c

STACK: